'Brighter Albany'

Groundbreaking, Luncheon Monday Marks Beginning Of San Pablo Ave. Lighting

Groundbreaking ceremonies and a civic luncheon will mark the start of a project which means a new and brighter look is at hand for Albany's San Pablo Avenue.

City officials, Albany Chamber of Commerce leaders and representatives of Pacific Gas and Electric company will be among those taking part in the chamber-sponsored activities Monday, Feb. 27, at 11:30 a.m.

PG&E crews are starting work this week on the conversion of old street lights on San Pablo Avenue to a modern system featuring the latest-type mercury vapor luminaires mounted on new aluminum standards.

A total of 110 aluminum poles and luminaires will be installed along the avenue in Albany from the Berkeley line to the El Cerrito line. They will take the place of a system having some 75 incandescent fixtures mounted on old trolley line poles.

The new installations will provide many times the lighting level of the present system. Each of the mercury vapor fixtures will be a 700-watt, 37,000-lumen unit. The old incandescent units are 405-watt, 6,000-lumen fixtures.

The overhead lines connecting the old light system will give way to a fully-underground system in the project. PG&E is making the conversion from a city-owned to a company-operated system at an estimated cost of more than $85,000, with the city providing some $13,600 through an assessment district. San Pablo Avenue property owners voted to form the district after a petition was circulated by the Chamber of Commerce.

PG&E is providing the new luminaires at its expense. It will be responsible for complete operation and maintenance of the modern system.

The new aluminum poles will be 33½ feet tall, with 6-foot arms holding the mercury vapor fixtures.

PG&E gas department, electric underground and electric overhead crews will be involved in the total conversion job. It's estimated the project will involve nearly 600 man days of work. The poles will arrive from the East about March 17.

Mayor Richard O. Clark, Councilmen George Hein, Lewis M. Howell and Joe Carlevaro, City Administrator James B. Turner and City Attorney Larry Saler, will head the city delegation at the groundbreaking ceremonies to be held at Plaza Car Wash, 400 San Pablo Avenue, near the El Cerrito line.

President Joe Dagna will head the Chamber of Commerce group.

Maid of Albany Sandra Hicks is being invited to take part.

George H. Conner, Albany-Berkeley manager of PG&E, will head the company representatives, including Illuminating Engineer J. J. Sturgeon and News Bureau Head Hal Risdon.

A public luncheon will be held at the Lucky 13, corner of Solano and San Pablo Ave., at 12 noon. It will cost $2 per person and reservations must be made by this Friday by calling the Chamber of Commerce office, 525-1771.

PG&E Asks Indulgence Of Merchants

PG&E has asked the indulgence of San Pablo Avenue merchants during the estimated two-month construction period for new street lights.

There will be some disruption in parking during the work from El Cerrito to the south city limits, Illuminating Engineer J. J. Sturgeon said. "We will not block any business place any longer than necessary," he added.

Dedication March 2

ALBANY RESIDENTS are invited to attend Dedication ceremonies for the two new buildings at Albany High school at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, March 2, in the Little Theatre which is in the building at right. At left is the walkway between the old and new buildings.

Mary Zugnoni Honored by Lions Thursday

Mary Zugnoni

Thursday, Feb. 23, will be a red letter day for local Lions for on that evening members will gather to honor Mary Zugnoni, Albany High school senior who has been judged Albany winner of Lions International peace essay contest, "Peace is Attainable."

Miss Zugnoni's 5,000 word essay has now advanced to Lion's District competition comprising the 58 clubs of Contra Costa and Alameda counties.

Winner from each District will then be forwarded to Lions headquarters in Chicago where a special group of judges will select the eight most outstanding essays from the free world.

Each of the eight winners will then receive $1,000 in scholarships, with a free trip to the 1967 Lion's International convention to be held in Chicago.

Final grand prize of $25,000 will be made at the convention from the area winners.

Contest winning is not new to Miss Zugnoni, having recently won top honors in the annual General Mills Betty Crocker homemaking test for high school seniors.

Special guests who will also join the Lion members for the event include Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zugnoni, the young lady's parents, judges of the contest, International Counselor William Thomas, Mrs. Dorothy Larimer, editor of the Albany Times, and Earl W. Smith, home builder from El Cerrito. Friends are welcome to attend. Dinner will be served at 7:15 at Serb's, 1045 San Pablo Ave., Albany.

COUNCIL

MARIN-BUCHANAN 'MERGE' SIGNS TO BE INSTALLED

The confusing intersection at Marin and Buchanan will no longer be "stop" or "yield," City Councilmen agreed Monday night. In the future, there will be a "merging traffic" sign on the island.

The change, unanimously adopted, was recommended by Police Chief Ralph Jensen and Administrative Officer James B. Turner.

In another traffic matter, Council referred to Turner, Jensen and the Traffic and Safety commission a request by Cornell Vista Principal Milton Gordon for green zones in front of the offices at the two schools so parents can stop for a few minutes to pick up sick children, etc.

Council agreed to support Senate Bill 170, introduced by Senator Lewis Sherman, to provide financial relief for educating children from tax-free University Village. During the discussion, Mayor Richard Clark mentioned that he had seen a resume of the bill when he attended a Board of Supervisors meeting and Councilmen agreed with him that the Board of Education should place such a resume in Council hands if it has been received here.

A letter from the Chamber of Commerce inviting city officials to groundbreaking ceremonies for new street lighting on San Pablo Monday was filed after Councilmen agreed an effort should be made to attend.

Resolutions passed included the appointment of Joanne F. Snow as Parking Enforcement Officer; supporting modifications of the Collier-Unruh gas tax formula, and approving a minor correction in the contract with Alameda County for assessing and tax collection for Albany.

Mayor Clark briefly discussed two items from the Mayors' Conference. Mayors are concerned, he said, because Bay Area Rapid Transit plans only one toilet per station. It will be locked and the key must be obtained from the attendant. The second issue is waste disposal. Alameda County mayors may be first in the country to undertake a study of this vital problem, Clark said.

The item of most concern to Albany residents—naming a fifth councilman to replace the late Joseph Egenberger—was not mentioned during the meeting, which adjourned at 8:35.

What Council Did Feb. 14

In a brief meeting Feb. 14, Albany City Council:

APPROVED exemption to Aiding Leukemia Stricken American Children to solicit funds Sunday, March 12; appointment of Mrs. Joanne F. Snow as replacement for Jacqueline Presley as Parking Enforcement Officer, effective Feb. 15;

PASSED resolutions appointing Mrs. Rolene Phillips as typist-clerk in the Police Department; Harold Murai and Charles Lee Deffebach as gardeners for the Park and Recreation department;

HELD OVER action on the parallel parking space and proposed yellow zone at the Post Office pending recommendations from postal officials;

As reported last issue, this week was proclaimed "Chamber of Commerce Week" and "Engineers Week."

HOME ON LEAVE

Navyman Charles Call, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert F. Call of 826 Kains, is home on leave from Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

Board of Education Accepts New Buildings, Sets Dedication March 2

Members of the Board of Education of Albany Unified School district Feb. 14 accepted the new additions to Albany High school and set Thursday, March 2, at 7:30 p.m. as the date and time for formal dedication ceremonies for the two buildings.

The board approved withholding $2,000 from a payment of $20,730.30 to Contractor S. J. Amoroso pending completion of minor items by March 21. The final payment of $67,000 is due April 1.

In other business Feb. 14, the board noted the end of the contract for portables used for band, chorus and homemaking at Albany High school. Old chorus room seats and platform were authorized for sale to International Flea Markets. Contents of the temporary foods room will possibly be sold to Richmond.

William Savage, head AHS counselor, and members of the staff discussed the nature and extent of counseling services in an interesting presentation which lasted more than an hour. They answered questions from the board and audience.

Firestone Store Approved Here

Members of the Planning and Zoning commission have unanimously approved a request from Firestone Tire and Rubber company to establish a retail store and service department at 969 San Pablo Ave., present location of Howard's Motor Sales.

Although representatives could not say how many employees would be needed or what hours the store would be open, they announced they intend to remodel the main building and demolish other buildings on the lots. The parking area will be lighted.

When plans are finalized, representatives were asked to return to the commission for architectural approval.

Camp Fire Girls End Mint Sale

According to Mrs. Albert Mueller, chairman, the Codornices Council of Camp Fire Girls Mint sale will end Feb. 24.

This Week

Chamber of Commerce In Drive for New Members

President Joe Dagna and directors of Albany Chamber of Commerce are planning personal visits and telephone calls this week to the 300 business firms which do not now belong to the Chamber.

Chairman of the membership drive, first in several years, is Ralph Hill of Hill Lumber company. He has distributed lists of about 10 potential members to each director. A concerted effort will be made to complete the canvass by Friday, Hill said.

"We have mailed a series of letters to each potential member," Hill said. "In the letters we outline reasons for Chamber membership. Hopefully, those receiving the letters will be ready to join when contacted."

Hill said there are many benefits of belonging to the Chamber of Commerce. One, for example, is adding an extra employee (the C of C manager) to the firm for about 12 cents per day. This new employee works to expand the trade territory, attracts new industries and businesses, represents the member in transportation and legislative matters, builds good will, improves living conditions in the community and works for public improvements which benefit all in business.

Thousand Oaks Merchants Protest Sign Ordinance

Thousand Oaks Merchants with Marty Webb as their spokesman will continue their fight against certain aspects of the proposed sign ordinance in Berkeley at the hearing Feb. 28 before the City Council.

There was standing room only at the last hearing Feb. 14, which continued until midnight.

Almost 70 per cent of the business signs in Berkeley do not comply with standards of the proposed ordinance. Of the 98 businesses in the Thousand Oaks area, 68 signs would have to come down, be modified or replaced, Webb noted. A sampling of just 10 of those which do not comply revealed a removal cost of $2,928 and replacement cost of $65,575.

Many Oaks business firms have polled their customers to determine if their signs were offensive or objectionable. Forty-three of these surveys, representing the opinions of 900 persons, sup-

Parents, teachers and interested members of the community are invited to attend.

Lenten Lecture Series at YWCA

An outstanding series of lectures, collectively entitled "New Trends in Ecumenical Understanding," will be given at the Berkeley Community YWCA, 2134 Allston Way, starting Monday, Feb. 27, at 10 a.m. Coffee will be served at 9:30.

Professor John von Rohr, professor of Historical Theology at Pacific School of Religion, Berkeley, will be first speaker. His topic is "The Protestant Approach to Interfaith Brotherhood." Dr. von Rohr, affiliated with PSR since 1955, is the author of several books and articles and was a delegate from the International Congregational Council to the Vatican Council in 1964. Locally, he planned and moderated a weekly television series, "We Believe," aired Sunday mornings over KPX in 1960 and 1961.

Here's What They Read in San Diego

An Albany resident has received a clipping from a relative in San Diego regarding the upcoming Berkeley City mayoral election.

On the side of the clipping, titled "Rubin in Berkeley Race," she wrote "...almost unbelievable."

Here's how United Press International distilled news of the coming election:

BERKELEY (UPI) — Jerry Rubin, 28-year-old former leader of the Vietnam Day Committee, has filed as a candidate for mayor of Berkeley.

Rubin, an organizer of last November's black power conference at University of California, said his candidacy will reflect "the rebellion and new affirmation of youth."

The former UC student appeared at a press conference with his mustache trimmed and his hair cut.

Besides Rubin, the mayoralty race includes incumbent Wallace J. S. Johnson; Fred Huntley, an ultraconservative, and Peter Camacho, a Trotskyite.

Candidates filing for four City Council seats included three incumbents and Charles Edward (Brown) Artman, 28, a former UC student who described himself as a wandering LSD priest.

Local Jaycees Get State Support for Senate Bill

Feb. 10, 14 young men from Albany Jaycees departed by bus and private car for a Board meeting of the State Jaycees, which was held in February 10-12 at the Hotel at Lake Tahoe. They attended the meeting for two specific purposes in mind. First, to get the real support of the California Jaycees for Albany's resolution to become Senate Bill 170, the problem of State-aided schools in Albany and other areas in California. Secondly, to encourage them to their chairman in the Legislature about it.

Board meeting was conducted by an appearance from Jaycee National President, Little, who stressed in his speech that the future of mankind lies in the hands of youth and action.

Albany men returned Sunday feeling confident their trip had been accomplished with renewed vigor for future projects.

Those attending was especially pleased to see after a year's absence, Charles (Chuck) Call, who has been stationed at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, with the U.S. Navy, returned on leave to attend the February Board meeting.

As a final word, Jaycees would like to take this opportunity to announce that work has begun on plans for the 1967 "Maid of Albany" contest, which is slated for May 20 at Albany High school. There will be more information on this in the near future.

Chamber of Com. (Continued from Page 1)

Albany business people benefit from all Chamber projects—new street lighting on San Pablo Ave. and Solano Ave., Christmas decorations, July 4 fireworks, Art Show and Bazaar, maps, business directories, referrals for new comers, etc.

"The 150 members of the Chamber of Commerce have proven you can make things happen by working together," Hill said. "There is strength in numbers, so we anticipate even more accomplishments with a substantial increase in membership."

The Chamber of Commerce has two primary resources, Hill pointed out: manpower and money. Both are necessary to carry out a well-rounded program of business and community development, public affairs, legislative action and publicity and advertising.

Obituary
ENRY VASCONSELLES
A Requiem Mass was said at 9 a.m. Thursday at St. John the Baptist Church in El Cerrito for Henry Vasconcelles, 83, a 50-year resident who died in an Oakland hospital. Mr. Vasconcelles lived at 926 Norvell St., El Cerrito.
Surviving are two sons, William of Union City, and Ronald Vasconcelles of Garden Grove; two daughters, Mrs. Mignon Lee and Louise Encalada, both of El Cerrito. Mrs. Bette Tichner and Mrs. Lillian Dixon, both of San Leandro, Mrs. Elsie Connell of East Richmond Heights, 14 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.
The rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tonight at Ellis-Olson mortuary, where funeral services will be conducted at 8:30 a.m. tomorrow in the Drawing Room chapel. Interment will be in St. Joseph's cemetery, San Pablo.
A native of Oakland, Mrs. Thauberger had been an Albany resident 26 years and had lived at the family home on Key Route 16 years. A 1946 graduate of Albany High school, she was a member of St. Ambrose church and active in Boy Scouts and Marin PTA before her illness.
Survivors include her husband, Gerald W. Thauberger; son Gerald R. Thauberger, 16; two daughters, Sheryl Anne, eight, and Annette, two; mother, Celestine M. Turpin of Albany; sister, Helen Fisk of Anaheim; and a brother, Robert A. Turpin, of Sunnyvale.

Founders of Harold's Club at High 12
For the second time, the Albany High Twelve club will have Raymond Smith, founder of Harold's Club in Reno as the speaker of the day. Because of the interest shown by the members the previous occasion that Smith addressed the club, Program Chairman Herbert Rounds invited Smith to appear at the club's luncheon meeting Friday, Feb. 24, in the banquet room at Kirby's in the El Cerrito Plaza.
The topic of Smith's discourse will be "Gambling in the Eyes of the Professional," giving an insight to those who like to gamble for pleasure or profit. A cordial invitation is extended to all Master Masons to visit the Albany High Twelve club luncheon meetings.
Herbert Rounds will be the acting president Friday as President Fred Beeson will be in Moro Bay attending the State Association Spring Conference of High Twelve Clubs. Others of the club who will be in Moro Bay are Harold Brillhart and Joseph Lorper.
The chairman of the day will be Albany City Councilman George C. Hein, who will introduce the speaker.

INTER-CLUB COUNCIL PLANS MANY ACTIVITIES
Albany's newly-organized Inter-Club Council discussed many activities at the February meeting last Thursday morning at the Chamber of Commerce office.
Among projects mentioned were: standards for official signs of Albany's organizations, possibly a combined effort with Berkeley and El Cerrito and located at the north and south entrances to Albany.
An expenditure of $100 for a new Nativity Scene for the Freedom Shrine area at Key Route Blvd. and Solano;
Helping to raise funds for more attractive Christmas decorations for the city; considering the installation of adequate underground wiring so Key Route Blvd. could become a Christmas Tree Lane;
Working in cooperation with Albany Fire Department in keeping an up-to-date calendar of events and urging all organizations to send their bulletins to the Fire Department for upcoming events;
Compiling a directory of all organizations, churches and schools with officers and their telephone numbers (May Ellis Olson volunteered the covers; Irene Mac-

Williams will mimeograph pages.)

Hundreds Attend Walkup Anniversary Party

Over 500 friends greeted Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beach Walkup at a reception on their Silver anniversary. The affair, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Walfred Olson, Mrs. Walkup's parents, was held on Saturday, Feb. 11, at the Cerrito City Club.

Yvonne and Robert Walkup were married 25 years ago at Trinity Episcopal Church in Oakland, followed by a reception in Albany. All but two of the original wedding party were present at the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Olson, the honorees, and their son, Robert, Jr., greeted the guests. Mrs. Henry Vila was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Carl MacWilliams received the gifts.

The club was decorated with silver and white bells, a large cluster hanging from the center beam of the ceiling, with white satin ribbon, silver and white bells and clusters of silver leaves and bouvardia decorated the entire hall. A 30 by 40 enlargement of the wedding party and the bride and groom of 25 years ago, framed in silver, stood on each side of the stage, mounted on white satin bound easels. A five-tiered anniversary cake on a satin draped table, was placed in front of the stage, flanked by tall tapers in silver candleabras. Two engraved silver goblets, a gift of Mrs. Walkup's from her godmother, Mrs. Conrad Winter, were placed at the other end of the room, backed by a silver panel extending to the ceiling. A silver stemmed bowl, containing white and silver flowers with eight white tapers centered the credenza. A satin bound hoop with a cluster of bells in the center and a cascade of stephanotis, silver and white satin ribbon hung from the beam.

Mrs. Walkup attended Albany High school and the University of California. She is secretary-treasurer and co-owner of the Ellis-Olson mortuary, along with her mother and father. She is past president of the Alberito Club of Business and Professional Women; past president of Albany Parlor Native Daughters of Mr. Walkup is associated with the Pacific Telephone Co. He is a member of the Native Sons of the Golden West, Albany Post American Legion, Albany Lodge of Masons, Fidelis White Shrine, Albany Chapter of the Eastern Star and the Telephone Pioneers. Mrs. Walkup wore an aqua Dior sheath of green Alaskine with bell sleeves, white orchids and pearls. Mrs. Olson received her guests in gold brocade to which she pinned a brown lady-slipper orchid corsage.

Art Bellasano and his Melody Men played for dancing. The guests enjoyed a buffet and champagne.

Those attending from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Walkup from Santa Barbara, Robert's brother; Mr. and Mrs. William Walter and Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Steffan from San Carlos; Robert and James Petersen and Miss Lorraine Wilson from Ross; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Vochatz and daughter, Kathleen, from San Mateo; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Harrison from San Bruno; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Edwards and daughter, Deniece, from Greenville and Mrs. Harold Roney from St. Helena.

The Walkups' home is at 827 Cerrito St., Albany.

GUESTS AT the anniversary party were delighted to see Yvonne Walkup looking radiant after a long illness. Here she and her husband pose with photo taken following their 1942 wedding.

Lighting costs less today than it did in '63, because PG&E rates are lower.

While almost everything else in your cost of living has gone up in the last four years, there have been five reductions in PG&E gas and electric rates.

You're probably using more energy now because you've added new, improved lighting and a few new appliances since '63. So your PG&E bill may be higher. But lower rates keep PG&E energy the biggest bargain in your family budget.

DEMOCRATS SET SPEAKER ON EXTREMISM THURSDAY

Rev. Arnold Crompton, minister of the First Unitarian Church of Oakland, will speak on the topic, "Extremism—Everyone is a Target," at a public meeting on Thursday, Feb. 23, at Cornell Elementary school library (corner of Solano and Cornell Avenues) in Albany. The meeting, to begin at 8 p.m., is sponsored by the Albany Democratic club.

Rev. Crompton, who has served First Unitarian of Oakland for the past 22 years, is a leading authority on extremist groups and has had direct experience with members of the Far Right. In 1969 while serving as minister of the Unitarian Church of Erie, Pennsylvania, the Nazi Bund tried to take over his church. Based on this and other experiences, Rev. Crompton's address will focus on the nature of people who are drawn to extremist groups and their methods and tactics of sowing hate and discord in a community.

This meeting is being called because of the indication that Albany has become a number one target of the extremists. According to Tim Fine, president of the Albany Democratic club, Albany has the dubious distinction of having the largest and most active John Birch Society library (under the name, American Opinion Library) in Northern California. Larger in fact, according to Fine, than the main Birch library in San Francisco.

"Recently," stated President Fine, "the Albany Birch library stepped up its activities by financing large billboards on Hoffman Blvd. and San Pablo Ave. calling for the impeachment of America's Chief Justice. Most disturbing, the latest report on the John Birch Society by the Anti-Defamation League lists on page 33 the Albany Birch library as a purveyor of anti-Semitic material."

The president of the 225 member Albany club stated, "The activities of the Birch Society in Albany and surrounding communities have reached serious proportions and can no longer be ignored by the vast majority of responsible citizens. Scores of cities and villages across the country have felt the efforts of the extreme Right to infiltrate, to intimidate, to grab control of schools and PTAs, libraries, political clubs and civic organizations. If we in Albany are to avoid the fear and suspicion that has been generated by these tactics in other American towns (including Castro Valley last year) then we must take PREVENTATIVE action now before it is too late."

President Fine went on to state, "The prime success of the Birchers is their use of surprise attacks and catching citizens of a community off guard. Accordingly, the best method of blunting such an attack is to have the community educated as to the nature of the extremists and their methods plus having ready-made machinery for dealing with them. Rev. Crompton's address will inform us here in Albany on how we can be prepared to handle extremist attacks on our schools, libraries and civic organizations when and if they occur."

The president of Albany's largest club said, "Because of the importance of this meeting, members of the City Council and School Board, plus members of Albany's PTAs, churches and civic organizations have been invited to attend. We in Albany can show other communities that through education and organization before the extremists strike, rather than after, that we can successfully thwart their efforts to create hate and mistrust amongst our fine people."

Republican Women Attend Monterey Meet

of ABAG, urging county and city representatives be asked to take adequate time to study and amend its regional government proposal before final approval.

A resolution urging a "no" vote on the Consular Treaty was approved. Copies will be sent to Senators Kuchel, Murphy and Dirksen.

Letters

Editor, the Times:
On behalf of the Albany High School Band Boosters we want to thank the people of Albany who made our Fish Fry of Feb. 10 the success it proved to be.

It is quite rewarding to be associated with an effort of this nature, and to find that from the planning stage to the main event, our every request received the utmost courtesy and cooperation.

We are indeed grateful to Mrs. Jennie Nemela, cafeteria supervisor, Albany schools, for her hours of hard work. Her know-how of the cooking and serving made for a successful merging of our efforts.

We especially wish to thank Lew Howell and Park and Shop Markets for their generous donation. Also Don Chelemedos of Chelemedos Market, Safeway, Pic and Pac, Lee Jackson of Spencers, Bob and Fern Luoma for their photograph, which appeared in the Times, and to the Albany Times for publicity.

The music students did a remarkable job on ticket sales and serving. The members of the Band Boosters did everything possible to make this a worthwhile evening. All in all, it was a fine example of community cooperation toward a worthy cause.
